

The Russian Revolution

Who's Who and What Did They Do?

A Reference Sheet and Review

Who's Who in the Russian Revolution

Name	Image	Noted For
Nicholas II		the tsar/czar of Russia before the revolution, was assassinated with his family
Grigory Rasputin		religious mystic, believed to be able to cure hemophilia, seen as a harmful influence on the government, will add to the common people's pre-revolutionary discontent
Vladimir Lenin		a revolutionary Marxist, April Manifesto/Theses, leader of the Bolshevik Party, turns Russian Empire into one part socialist Soviet Union (USSR)
Alexander Kerensky		asked Nicholas to abdicate, was head of the provisional government
Leon Trotsky		Marxist, helps the Reds come to victory during the post-revolution Civil War, exiled by rival Stalin